Other Business:

Evan Mercer representing Pepin County ATV/UTV club talked about opening of bridge to Durand. They are attending a hearing at the State level to pass bill 331. Suggested we do a Resolution like the City of Durand.

Lisa Meyer, the town assessor, presented the need to revalue the Town's property according to the State compliance for market adjustment. The town will get a letter from the state. We will need to amend the contract for 2026 to reassessment for equalized value. This will have to be done in 2027.

Special permit application For Bill and Pam Ingram is tabled currently.

Presented the Fire department annual dues it has a .83% increase. We are reviewing to see if we can add this to the town levy.

Reviewed bills for payment and paid.

No citizen concerns.

Clerk Report.
